

People with Disabilities

Lottery decision makers must have regard to the needs of certain groups when making decisions about grants.

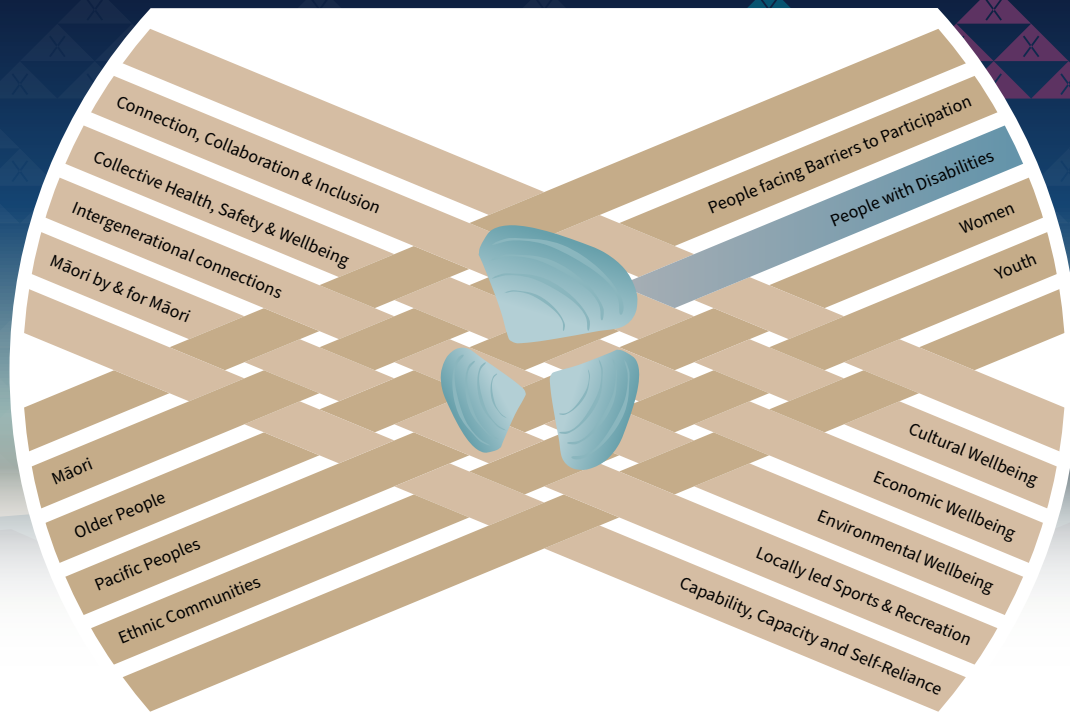

People with disabilities are one of these groups, and so the outcomes framework includes outcomes for disabled people. This means everyone with a disability that limits their function in terms of hearing, vision, mobility, cognition, communication or ability to care for themselves.

Near Horizon Outcomes – Ngā Pae Poto relating to People with Disabilities:

- Using universal design to develop digital and built environments, and services and systems that meet people's needs and enable self-reliance
- Ensuring people with disabilities are included in emergency responses
- Building capability and capacity to support people with disabilities to gain choice and control, develop governance and leadership abilities and achieve their potential
- Empowering disabled people and their families to make decisions about their own lives
- Enabling neurodiverse people to participate in society
- Increasing accessible sports and recreation opportunities for people with disabilities
- Making accessible play equipment available for children with disabilities
- Supporting people with disabilities into employment and strengthening their financial literacy
- Increasing people with disabilities' access to suitable housing
- Supporting the culture and language of people with disabilities
- Enabling people who are deaf or hard of hearing to communicate and participate
- Supporting people with disabilities' equitable access to diverse arts, culture, and heritage activities
- Advancing people with disabilities' climate and environmental initiatives
- Accessibility to natural areas is increased to support access for people with disabilities
- Improving health, safety and wellbeing for people with disabilities
- Enabling local leadership by people with lived experience, to encourage broad participation in civil society
- Reducing barriers to a non-disabling society

People with Disabilities

- Increasing access to inclusive opportunities for connection for people experiencing multiple intersectional barriers
- Increasing participation of people with disabilities across all sectors of society
- Enabling people with disabilities to participate across their communities by increasing accessibility and mobility
- Increasing accessibility and connections for rural people with disabilities
- Supporting and connecting women with disabilities within their communities
- Increasing Māori cultural connections for tangata whaikaha Māori and tangata turi Māori
- Increasing equitable support for whānau (families) caring for children and young people, and/or older people and/or people with disabilities
- Increasing accessibility to support community participation by children and young people with disabilities and their families
- Connecting and supporting older people with disabilities within their communities
- Increasing dignity and respect for people with disabilities in intergenerational settings