

Māori

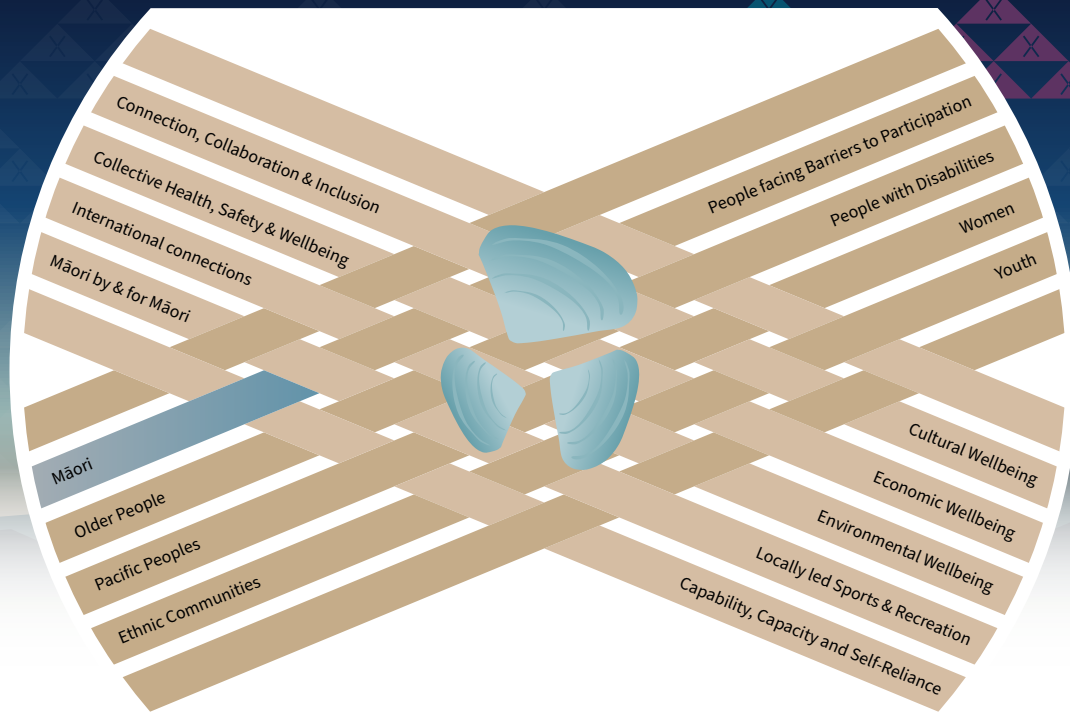

Lottery decision makers must have regard to the needs of certain groups when making decisions about grants.

Māori are one of these groups, and so the outcomes framework includes outcomes for hapori Māori, hapū, and iwi. This means everyone recorded as Māori or of Māori descent.

Near Horizon Outcomes – Ngā Pae Poto relating to Māori:

- Enabling communities, hapū, iwi, and hapori Māori to be self-reliant
- Supporting and recognising Māori, Pacific Peoples' and ethnic communities' concepts of capability, capacity and self-reliance
- Strengthening intercultural capability
- Strengthening the capacity of hapori Māori to be centres of community resilience, emergency response and places for people to connect during times of crisis and need
- Strengthening cultural sports and recreation activities
- Defining hapori Māori places for hākinakina Māori to thrive
- Hapori Māori developing indigenous economic models
- Progressing collective housing initiatives on Māori land
- Recognising and supporting indigenous models of prosperity and resource sharing (manaakitanga and koha)
- Growing equitable access to environments supporting cultural wellbeing and wairuatanga
- Strengthening multiculturalism, cultural wellbeing and national identity
- Increasing intercultural capability and cultural wellbeing
- Growing revitalisation projects originating from hapori Māori
- Strengthening cultural connections to the natural environment (kaitiakitanga)
- Managing natural materials used for cultural purposes
- Enabling hapori Māori-led environmental protection initiatives to prosper
- Growth in environments, resources and practices appropriate to cultural health and wellbeing needs
- Encouraging hapori Māori to utilise a Whānau Ora model

- Enabling local leadership by people with lived experience, to encourage broad participation in civil society
- Increasing recognition of hapori Māori connections and actions as community connectors
- Increasing access to inclusive opportunities for connection for people experiencing multiple intersectional barriers
- Uplifting Māori growth and aspirations
- Increasing support for all aspirations that originate from within hapori Māori, hapū and iwi
- Increasing support for all aspects of building, including physical structures, and supporting both modern and traditional knowledge
- Increasing support for indigenous economies, business growth and development which have collective benefit
- Increasing prominence of Ranginui, Papatūānuku and governing Atua in decision-making
- Growing self-governance, self-determination, independence and control, from Māori, for Māori
- Increasing indigenous digital innovation supporting Māori-led initiatives
- Strengthening indigenous data sovereignty initiatives
- Increasing Māori cultural connections for tangata whaikaha Māori and tangata turi Māori
- Tamariki and rangatahi Māori thriving as Māori
- Increasing access for kaumātua to thriving support networks and leadership opportunities
- Improving wahine Māori lives through initiatives led by wāhine Māori
- Celebrating takatāpui identities
- Thriving Māori-led initiatives for rural hapori Māori
- Sharing cultural practices across generations so they are remembered for future generations
- Flourishing intergenerational connections between people and te taiao (the natural environment)
- Increasing intergenerational knowledge about urban and taurahere settings, and whakapapa of organisations, is shared by hapori Māori, adding depth and richness of knowledge to kaupapa