

Ethnic Communities

Lottery decision makers must have regard to the needs of certain groups when making decisions about grants.

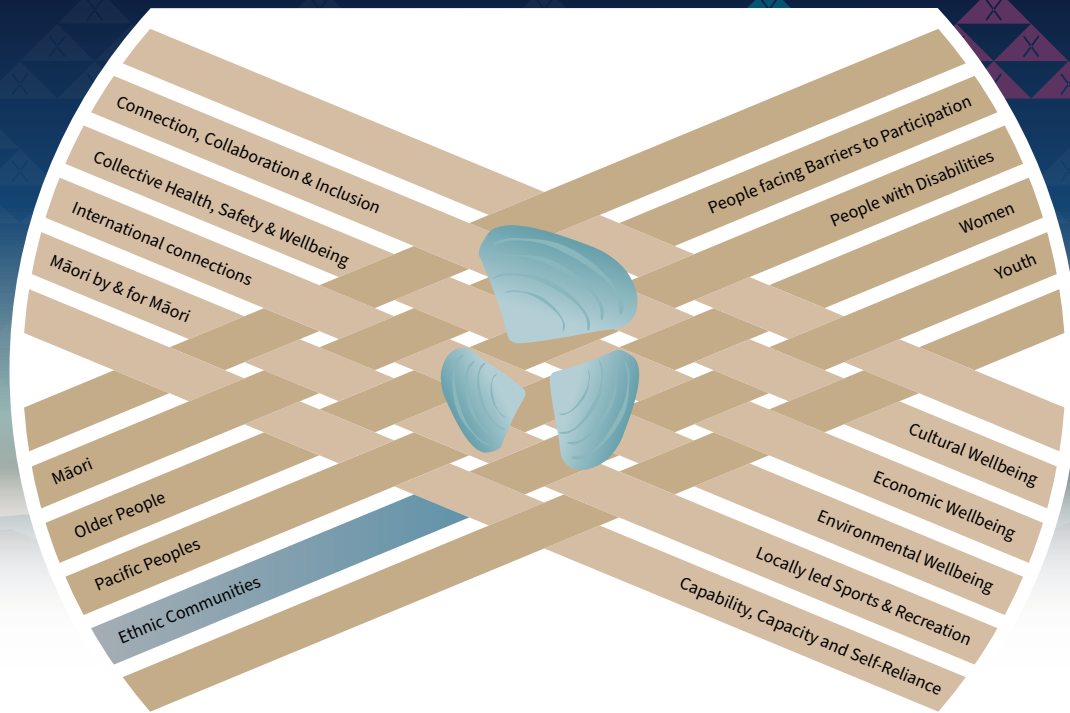

Ethnic communities are one of these groups, and so the outcomes framework includes outcomes for people from ethnic communities. This means everyone recorded as belonging to an ethnic community, defined as: Asian ethnicities, Continental European ethnicities (excluding the United Kingdom and Ireland), Middle Eastern ethnicities, Latin American ethnicities, and African ethnicities.

Near Horizon Outcomes – Ngā Pae Poto relating to Ethnic Communities:

- Supporting and recognising Māori, Pacific Peoples' and ethnic communities' concepts of capability, capacity and self-reliance
- Strengthening intercultural capability
- Ensuring people from ethnic communities are included in emergency responses
- Building capability and capacity within ethnic communities to participate in society
- Strengthening cultural sports and recreation activities
- Increasing people in ethnic communities' equitable access to sports and recreation
- Recognising and supporting indigenous models of prosperity and resource sharing (manaakitanga and koha)
- Enabling people in ethnic communities to contribute to and benefit from collective economic prosperity
- Growing equitable access to environments supporting cultural wellbeing and wairuatanga
- Strengthening multiculturalism, cultural wellbeing and national identity
- Increasing intercultural capability and cultural wellbeing
- Promoting ethnic communities' arts, culture, heritage and language initiatives
- Supporting people with disabilities in ethnic communities to socially and culturally participate
- Strengthening cultural connections to the natural environment (kaitiakitanga)
- Managing natural materials used for cultural purposes
- Increasing ethnic communities' climate and environmental action
- Growth in environments, resources and practices appropriate to cultural health and wellbeing needs

Ethnic Communities

- Improving health, safety and wellbeing for people in ethnic communities by providing services appropriate to their needs
- Supporting the wellbeing, belonging and inclusion of young people from ethnic communities
- Enabling local leadership by people with lived experience, to encourage broad participation in civil society
- Increasing access to inclusive opportunities for connection for people experiencing multiple intersectional barriers
- Increasing inclusion of people from ethnic communities, former refugees and migrants across all sectors of society
- Sharing cultural practices across generations so they are remembered for future generations
- Flourishing intergenerational connections between people and te taiao (the natural environment)
- Increasing support for people from ethnic communities, former refugees and migrants to form intergenerational networks
- Supporting the use of digital technology for people in ethnic communities to maintain intergenerational connections